

Come Along for the Ride

Route 66 was formed in 2003 by Jim Carriker reuniting with long-time friends and former bandmates.

The current lineup includes Jim Carriker (bass), Shane Atwell, aka Jack Daniel - (guitar/vocals), Bob Wade (guitar/vocals), Jet Taylor (drums), Jamey Slawter (keyboard/vocals), Jeff Carroll (vocals/harmonica), Christine Nichols (vocals/guitar) and John Culbreath (violin/mandolin/banjo/guitar/vocals).

The band performs covers of classic rock n roll favorites ranging from the 60's through today as well as some original music. Known as the sing-along-band for their song selections, Route 66 regularly plays at outdoor festivals as well as at many popular music venues in and around the Concord and Charlotte, NC area.

Some of the artists covered by Route 66 include: The Eagles, America, The Beatles, Tom Petty and the Heartbreakers, Neil Young, Tracy Chapman, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Charlie Daniels Band, Jimmy Buffett, Wilson Pickett, Janis Joplin and more.

For the past several years, Route 66 has performed at The Georgia Wine Festival at Three Sister's Vineyards near Dahlonega, GA. Local venues include the Double Door Inn, Mike & Steve's Place and George Washington Bookstore & Tavern. Recently, Route 66 opened for SugarCreek's reunion show at Mike & Steve's Place in Concord.

With Route 66 band members' ages ranging from the 40's to 50's, their stage presence and repertoire appeal to a wide variety of audiences – from family-oriented festivals to private parties and local clubs.
